

A rustic wooden table with a silver Moka pot, a dark ceramic pitcher, and a cup. The table is made of thick, weathered wooden planks. The Moka pot is on the left, the pitcher is in the center, and a cup is partially visible behind it. A black rectangular box is overlaid on the right side of the image, containing the title and author information.

Konjo Coffee

By. Yosef Teshager

concept

The goal is not to erase the existing character, but to refine and uplift it. Through light, natural materials, better spatial organization, and layered textures, the space becomes brighter, calmer, and more efficient, while preserving the story of the coffee ceremony.

Before

After

Design Objectives

- Optimize layout for better circulation
- Improve furniture comfort and space efficiency
- Balance modern functionality with traditional coffee culture
- Brighten the space using light colors and reflective surfaces and mirrors
- Create a cohesive atmosphere rooted in minimalism, warmth, and meaning

Style & Furniture

- Style: Scandinavian (minimal, bright, warm)
- Materials: vertical wood panels, painted gypsum wall, wood, metal
- Colors: light pink, light blue, white, sage green, dusty rose
- Furniture: wooden tables, wooden kitchen cabinet, cushioned light chairs, cushioned bench

Spatial Redesign Highlights

- Retained layout structure, refined furniture arrangement
- Introduced built-in bench on one side to maximize seating
- Replaced harsh metal chairs with cushioned, ergonomic seating
- Used round tables to improve movement and soften space

Lighting Strategy

- Warm LED ceiling spotlights for ambient light
- Pendant lighting above tables for intimacy
- Wall sconces and under-shelf LEDs for depth
- Partial glass roof strip introduced to bring in natural light

Feature Walls

- Wall 1: Large mirror in the shape of a coffee bean reflects light, expands space, reinforces identity
- Wall 2: Alternating pattern of vertical light-wood slats and white wall segments
  - Soft text-based artwork overlaps part of the slats and white wall
  - Creates rhythm, depth, and unity with Scandinavian theme

Traditional Coffee Corner

- Placed near entrance
- Minimal light wood platform holds:
  - Jebena, white coffee cups, incense burner, woven mat
- Soft spotlight above for focus
- Becomes cultural focal point without interrupting flow

Drawings

Floor Plan

Ceiling plan

Section A-A

Section B-B

Section C-C

Elevation

Frontal

3D Illustration

Thank you